The little gelataro

Money can't buy happiness but it can buy gelato, and that's kind of the same thing!

That's why kids will love this chance to become a gelato maker for a day!

In one of Rome's oldest and most famous gelateria, they'll learn how to make their own gelato with an experienced and knowledgeable professional.

They'll learn hands-on the process of making this delicious Italian dessert, choosing and weighing ingredients while learning the heating and icing technique and how it affects ingredients.

The best part? Eating their homemade gelato while taking a stroll in the heart of Rome.

Suitable for children aged 4 and older.

The little artist

Unleash your kids' creativity and let them be a part of history as they learn to create a fresco painting!

The word 'fresco' comes from the Latin word for 'fresh', which simply means painting on fresh plaster. One of the most famous examples of this technique is Michelangelo's work on the ceiling of the Sistine Chapel.

In this class with an expert, kids will learn the special techniques to create their own colourful fresco.

It only takes a few hours to complete and when dry, it will be preserved in plaster to treasure for years to come.

Suitable for children aged 4 - 12.

The little pizzaiolo

Budding chefs will love this chance to learn the basics of Italian culinary traditions and surprise family and friends!

Your little one will meet our chef in the heart of town for a lesson in making pizza in an authentic brick wood oven. They'll learn all the tips and tricks, from dough to dressings, and at the end of the class enjoy tucking into their delicious homemade pizza!

Kids can choose to make one of two types of traditional pizza - either the thin and crispy Roman style or Neapolitan deep and doughy.

This is the ultimate gourmet experience for the whole family.

Suitable for children aged 4 and older.

The little gladiator

Have your children ever wondered what a gladiator's life was like back in ancient times?

Now they can experience a day as a real life gladiator, as our expert instructor reveals the fascinating history of the game, shows ancient weaponry and even gives them the chance to touch and try on the armour.

The highlight of the day is training like a real Roman gladiator, mastering techniques of attack and defence using a (foam) sword.

Suitable for children aged 7 and older.
